

HABS DC, WASH, 205-
DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA

WASHINGTON, D. C.

16p
17d

STATE

COUNTY

TOWN or VICINITY

Hauge, Christian, House (later Czechoslovakian Embassy,
STRUCTURE now Embassy of the Federal Republic of Camaroon

Chancery). (DC-262)
2349 Massachusetts Ave., N.W. at intersection of 24th St. Brick with limestone facing, wedge-shaped, 67'-9" (Massachusetts Ave. facade) x 36'-8" (24th St.) x 65'-8"
(depth perpendicular to Ave.), three-and-a-half stories with additional attic story under slate gable roof, S bay is two

CARD 1 of 3

(DC-262)

CARD

2 of 3

stories, first story was originally garage, iron roof cresting, 63'-high corner tower with conical roof, gabled wall dormers with finials and crockets, pierced balustrade, early 16th C. French details, eclectic interiors with marble mantels and elaborate woodwork and plasterwork. Built 1906-7; George Oakley Totten, Jr., architect, upper floors damaged by fire 1933; one-story addition to NW. built 1934; renovated 1972. Built as residence and legation offices by Christian Hauge, Norway's first minister to U.S.; served as diplomatic legation of Czechoslovakia 1930-69. 2 ext. photos (1970), 5 int. photos (1970), 2 ext. photocopies (1907), 4 int. photocopies (c. 1945), 3 photocopies of plans (1907, 1972); 17 data pages (1970-73). JCL 111.

(DC-262)

Card prepared 1978.